INVESTORS IN LAKE VIEW NO. 2 GET NEWS

Under date of Los Angeles, Nov. 12, a circular of the Lakeview No. 2 Oil Co. to its stockholders announced that the vote taken in August showed that there was not a majority of stockholders in favor of purchasing the lease of the Pentland over what is known as the "north 40 acres" of its leasehold, and that therefore the purchase will not be made.

The circular says in addition: "It must be understood that although the present producing well is located on the 'North 40,' the production from this well is to be retained by the Lake View No. 2 Oil Company until the debts of the Pentland Union are entirely wiped out, until our well No. 1 located on the 'south 40 acres' is completed, and until the Lake View No. 2 Oil Company is reimbursed for all the money expended on wells No. 1 and No. 2, and reimbursement for value of all the equipment (belonging to the Lake View No. 2 Oil Company) placed on Section 4.
"Tubing trouble in well No. 2 caused loss of production for a number of days. This trouble has been eliminated, however, and the October production and delivery was 20,215 bbls. The gravity of the output is 26.6 deg. and the company is receiving 55c per bbl. for its oil.
"Former cementing jobs failed to shut off all the water in well No. 3, and the company has been compelled again to cement. If the present cementing job is a success, No. 3 should be producing in a short time. The oil showings in this well are good and, judging from the indications, No. 3 should be a good producer as any well in our vicinity."

FORMER HONOLULU, H. W. WILLIS, NOW MANAGER OF BELLEVUE

News has been received from San Francisco that H. W. Willis, remembered by the most of the kamaiaines here as the former manager of the Royal Hawaiian hotel, has recently taken charge of the Bellevue hotel of San Francisco, his appointment dating from November 15.
Honolulu arrivals on the Manchuria who registered at the Bellevue included Mrs. R. A. Wallbridge, F. W. Kiehn and Mr. and Mrs. C. H. Cooke.

AMERICAN ATHLETES TAKE SOUTHERN ROUTE

Local followers of athletics were surprised to find that the American track team preparing to invade Australia did not arrive on the Sonoma this morning. As a matter of fact, papers today brought the news that the team sailed on November 12 by the Tahiti, which takes the southern route to Australasia.
The team includes Rick Templeton of Stanford; Caughey, weightman; Parker, sprinter; Powers, distance runner, and Eustace Pelkotte, manager. Templeton joined the team just before the boat sailed, being literally smuggled aboard. He is Stanford's star and a strong effort was made to prevent his going to Australia, as that means he cannot compete for the Cardinal next spring.
General Villa borrowed $100,000 from the two banks of Juarez, Mexico, to pay off the rebel troops.

To Those who sometimes buy from Catalogue Houses

If you feel that you MUST buy Photographic Goods from a Catalogue house on the mainland:—if you feel that you save money by buying that way:—at least PLACE YOUR ORDER THROUGH US, INSTEAD OF ORDERING DIRECT.

We positively guarantee to sell you the same articles, at exactly the same price, and on exactly the same terms, and obtain delivery as you elect direct from the firm who issued the catalog or advertisement. We are willing to go to the bother this requires, in order to have the order go from us instead of from you. The order will have our most prompt and careful attention. Can you ask anything fairer?

FIRE HYDRANTS FIGHTING POINT FOR SUPERVISORS

Superintendent of Public Works John W. Caldwell will have to fight for one item on his water bill against the city and county. Chairman McClellan of the ways and means committee of the supervisors made this statement Saturday afternoon, replying to the superintendent's interview which appeared in the Star-Bulletin Saturday.
That item which the city fathers will refuse to pay is for the fire hydrants, a charge of $2.50 being made for each of 436 hydrants.
The supervisors will not fight any other part of the water bill, said McClellan, "but we feel that this one item is not properly a charge."
"A report of the committee recommending the payment of the balance due on the bills will be made at the next meeting of the board."
"The report was to have been put in at the last meeting, but it wasn't prepared in time."
The reason given by McClellan for the supervisors' refusal to pay the hydrant charge was that the water used through them was very little, and also that on the transfer of the water works from the territory to the city and county, the supervisors will have to assume the entire burden of their maintenance, as well as a large part of the cost.

CONKLING SEES RELIEF FROM LACK OF FUNDS

Territorial Treasurer Conkling says the financial stringency at present confronting the city and county of Honolulu is unlikely to occur again, or at least not after the next three or four years, as Act 142 of the session laws of 1913 has been framed especially to provide against such conditions. There is some question, however, whether the statute's provision will afford relief until about four years from the present time.
This law, explains the treasurer, provides for the establishment of a cash basis fund by the treasurer of each county, to be drawn upon in emergencies such as the one now extant. It requires the treasurer to place in the bank each six months a sum equal to one-fortieth of 1 per cent of the assessed valuation of the real and personal property in the county. When the cash basis fund has reached an amount equivalent to one-fifth of 1 per cent of the total assessed valuation of the property in the county the treasurer may draw upon it in the lean periods. The law is compulsory and as bank examiner for the territory Treasurer Conkling will see that it is obeyed.
There is some doubt whether the fund may be drawn upon before it has attained the one-fifth valuation point, however, and it may prove only an additional burden on the counties for the next four years. The first contribution to it must be made next month. The amounts each county must thus set aside semi-annually hereafter are as follows: Oahu $21,416.05, Hawaii, $9019.80, Maui $7678.45 and Kaua $4445.90.

HARRISON GIVES MANILA A SHOCK BY DEMOCRACY

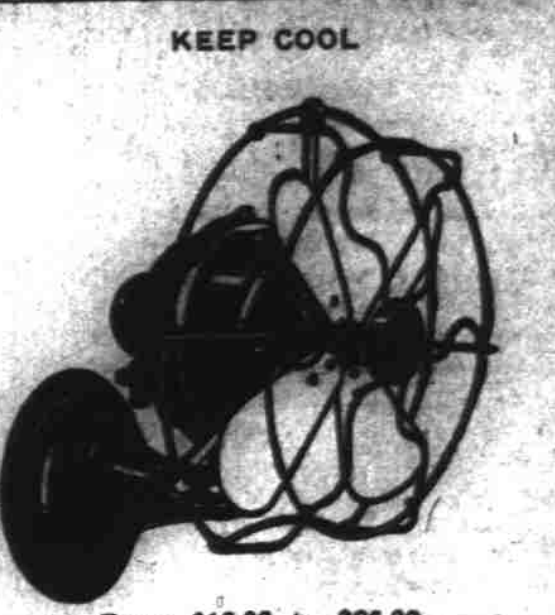

Governor-general Harrison gave Manila a shock by his democratic demeanor, according to the following story from the Cablenews-American: "There was not a little excitement and a great deal of admiration expressed last evening at the democratic simplicity of Governor-general Francis Burton Harrison and Mrs. Harrison at the Grand Opera House.
"The governor-general accompanied by Mrs. Harrison arrived at the opera house in a carriage along with other carriages and was practically unknown to those about him. As the governor-general approached the door he immediately fell into line along with all others to purchase tickets for himself and Mrs. Harrison.
"He was not there for long, however. Some one in the crowd discovered the governor-general and immediately put the management wise as to his presence in the line, patiently awaiting his turn at the box office.
"The management was in a flurry, but soon regained its breath and politely approaching his excellency escorted the distinguished guests to the governor-general's box, which has always been reserved for the chief executive and his family and guests."
